October 11th, 1920.

Mr. J. F. Le Blanc,
94 Fairmount Street,
Dorchester, Mass.

Dear Sir:-

I was very glad to hear from you, and will try to answer your various questions.

Membership in our Society is five dollars a year. The publications that one gets as a member easily amount to this if one should buy them. At the present moment we are publishing more on ancient coins and medals than anything else, but we try to keep our list as varied as possible. I am sending you an historical sketch of our Society and an application blank. If you join now the Journal including the State Coinage of New England will be sent you.

I can think of only the following books we have issued that might appeal to you:-

Our catalogue of an exhibition of United States and Colonial Coins held here several years ago. Price $1.00.

Frey's "Dictionary of Numismatic Names." $5.00.

For many years we have issued the American Journal of Numismatics, most numbers and volumes of these we can supply at prices ranging from $2.00 to $5.00 per volume. You can see these in the Boston Public Library, and get an idea as to what they are.

At times we have duplicate books from our Library for sale, though we do not make a practice of it. Sometime later you might write to our Librarian, Mr. S. P. Hoe, and he can then tell you if we have anything for sale that might interest you.

The two centavo Mexican piece you sent a rubbing of is the new issue although it is the same size as the old one centavo piece. The size of all of the Mexican coins have been reduced in recent years. There is also a large bronze five centavo piece.

In the list of the present Mexican Revolutionary pieces, for it is the present Revolution I am interested in, I have gone over, and if you could send me rubbings of the two Aguascalientes pieces, the Durango 5 centavos, the Morelos 50 centavos, and the Zapata piece, I would be very much obliged.

I remain,

Very truly yours,

Curator.

Dear Mr. LeBlanc:

Again I want to thank you for your remembrance of our Society at Christmas time. Out of the pieces you sent on there were quite a number that we added to our collection. We are always glad to receive coins but we are always more glad of the thought shown in sending them.
